- 2.10 During the probation period, the chosen candidate/s may be required to undergo an induction phase and any other relevant training which may be deemed necessary.

3. Duties and Responsibilities

3.1 The duties of a Social Worker include:

- carrying out home, school or other visits to assess the needs of learners referred to the service;
- meeting parents at school, office or in the community;
- working in close collaboration with the Secretariats' Psycho-Social team, School Management Teams and professionals employed by the Secretariat for Catholic Education, Church Schools, Government entities and non-Governmental Agencies, thereby ensuring maximum utilisation of resources for the benefit of their clients;

- in collaboration with the rest of the psycho-social team and in liaison with the National School Support Services, promoting and disseminating national policies, strategies and other guidelines and procedures approved by the Secretariat for Catholic Education with school staff and parents accordingly;
- implementing the relevant measures as indicated in the policies, strategies and guidelines;
- ensuring the law on compulsory education is adhered to by parents, keeping track of truant students and addressing issues that are leading to absenteeism;
- ensuring that records and logging systems are well kept regarding all interventions carried out with each student whilst ensuring confidentiality at all times in accordance with legal provisions;
- any other duties according to the exigencies of Church Schools as directed by the Coordinator for Social Workers and the Service Manager for Student Services;
- any other duties according to the exigencies of Church Schools as directed by the Director for Curriculum and Standards;
- any other duties according to the exigencies of Church Schools as directed by the Delegate for Catholic Education.

3.2 The role of the Social Worker primarily entails carrying out effective social work assessment and interventions with children, learners and their families. A selected candidate must ensure that service users are provided with a professional standard of social work through accurate assessments as well as the provision of professional and timely interventions. Responsibilities include maintaining required documentation, case management, report writing, the use of case conferences and case reviews to ensure holistic and integrated interventions, consultation, team work, and crises intervention.

3.3 A Social Worker can be deployed to perform duties in all Church Schools in Gozo.
