

Creative Writer/Producer

The Archdiocese of Malta is seeking to recruit a Creative Writer/Producer on a full-time basis. The successful candidate will report to the Digital Content and Marketing Manager and in his/her absence to the Director, Digital Presence. S/he will be responsible for organising and be involved in the production of engaging and inspiring content for various platforms in order to share the message of the Archdiocese of Malta and its realities. Moreover, s/he will also be responsible for handling the development of creative projects from conception to completion, which include providing support in video editing and design.

The ideal candidate must have:

- A tertiary level qualification (EQF Level 6) in English, Creative/Digital Media or Theology. A qualification in Creative Writing and/or a certificate in Maltese proof reading will be considered assets.
- An insight into the Church's social teachings with an aspiration to enhance the digital mission of the Church.
- At least 2 years' experience in a similar role. Experience in a production environment is considered an asset.
- Excellent command of the Maltese and English languages, both spoken and written.
- A passion for storytelling and creative writing, with a strong attention to detail.
- The ability to handle multiple projects concurrently and meet tight deadlines.
- Familiarity with digital evangelization strategies.

Interested persons are to submit the following to hr@maltadiocese.org by not later than 28 July 2024:

- A letter of application
- A detailed CV
- A scanned copy of certificates
- Names and email address of two referees
- Any relevant portfolio or proof of past experience in content writing, scriptwriting, or copywriting
